Our Story

On November 5th 1973, Alcona County Commission on Aging began with the vision of serving the residents of Alcona County. Helen Sharboneau, ACCOA's first Executive Director, laid the foundation of the values we still hold firm to today. She believed in the values of service and service to one's community.

Since 1973 to now, ACCOA mission is to promote dignity, independence and well-being to the Senior population of Alcona County, by initiating and coordinating programs that anticipate and meet the ever-changing needs of our Senior community.

Who's Is Eligible?

Services are available to residents of Alcona County who are 60 years of age or their spouse who are 60 years or older

Is There A Charge?

Programs administrated by the Commission on Aging rely heavily on donations for support. We are also funded by state and federal grants along with a county wide millage.

Although clients are not charged a fee for any of our services, there are suggested donation amounts for each service to help maintain the programs.

Congregate meals

A hot, well-balanced meal is provided for our congregate participates. Each meals provides one-third of the daily required nutrients for seniors citizens. Dinner is served at 4:30pm. Please call ahead by 11 AM to reserve a hot meal.

Suggested donations for meals for seniors 60 and over is $3.00.

The Cost for meal participates who are 59 or younger is $6.00

Home Delivered Meals

Hot meals, sack lunches, frozen meals and emergency meals are available for seniors who are homebound and unable to prepare meals. An assessment with our In-home Service Coordinator is required. These meals are prepared at the Lincoln Senior Center and delivered throughout the county by ACCOA employees.

Kinship care

A Program to assist adults age 55 and up, raising relative children. Two requests per year may be made per child. This program is funded in part by the U.S. Administration on Aging through Michigan Aging and Adult Services Agency and Region 9 Area Agency on For more information call 989-334-3466.
